Sir/Madam,

Sub: General Instructions for Awarding Marks for Arrear Subjects in the Intermediate Semester - Issuance of Statement of Marks - reg

It is, by direction, informed that the Syndicate, Bharathiar University has given its approval for awarding the passing minimum marks without considering the internal assessment marks to the students, who have arrears in the intermediate semesters and have submitted the application forms with prescribed fee in such a way that they would pass in the arrear papers.

Hence the Principals of Affiliated Colleges (Autonomous) Colleges are hereby requested to issue the statement of marks to the students who have arrears in the intermediate semesters and have submitted the application forms with prescribed fee mentioning only the passing minimum marks out of the maximum, but without mentioning the internal and external marks separately. This is applicable for all under-graduate and post-graduate programmes.

It is further informed that if any student is in disagreement with this methodology, he/she may be allowed to improve his/her grades appearing the examinations whenever they are held next to which application should be sent by him/her duly forwarded by the Head of the concerned department.

It is also informed that the Statement of Marks of the end semester examinations may be issued to the candidate with the date and month of examination as April/May 2020 indicating that 'examinations held in September 2020'.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,
